Arbor Day

...day of trees

6 June 1997

Landowners and CALM are planting hundreds of millions of trees across the south-west of WA, to fight salinity and to provide a cash crop for the future.

Areas under greatest threat from salinity are being targeted for Maritime pine (Pinus pinaster) crops under the State Salinity Action Plan. CALM will also plant a range of native trees on land already too saline, or too rocky for pines.

DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION AND LAND MANAGEMENT

Photo - Chris Garnett

4296 0497 3500