arbor day

DAY OF TREES

7 JUNE 1996

PHOTO BY BILL BACHMAN

PHOTO BY BILL BACHMAN

PHOTO BY JOHN & VAL BUTLER/LOCHMAN TRANSPARENCIES

PHOTO BY JOHN KLECZKOWSKI/LOCHMAN TRANSPARENCIES

PHOTO BY BILL BACHMAN

The boab, magnificent icon of the Kimberley, is among Western Australia's most distinctive trees and readily symbolises the vastness of our State. But the boab is just one of hundreds of species of trees that provide us with many benefits such as beautiful landscapes to visit and enjoy, protection of our water catchments, habitat for native wildlife, and timber for a wide range of uses such as fine furniture, works of art and homes.

DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION AND LAND MANAGEMENT