

1999 Serif Awards

The annual Serif Awards are Australia's leading national program recognising outstanding professional communication. They are awarded to those who demonstrate excellence and innovation in communication activities of industry, commerce, government, service, education, community and volunteer organisations. For outstanding achievements

the Gold Serif Award

is presented to

CALMweb Author's Group

for

in the category of

Employee Communication

Conservation & Land Management (WA)

