EAST PERTH CEMETERY PROJECT

RECTILINEAR GRID SYSTEM

Cemetery extends on azimuth 290°-110° between Plain Street and Waterloo Crescent, and on azimuth 020°-200° between Wittenoom and Bronte Streets.

A rectilineal grid has been set up thus:

Squares of ca 40 feet - numbered 1 to 15 North to South
- lettered A to Z West to East
(omitting letters "I and O")

Gravesites have been numbered along lines W to E:

Line 1 is adjacent to Plain Street (NW corner of EPC, Plain/Wittenoom Streets);

Line 62 is adjacent to Waterloo Crescent (SE corner of EPC, Waterloo/Bronte Streets);

Numbering is consecutive along these lines from north to south.

Line 1 No. 1 is Milnes in the NW area of EPC.

Line 62 No. 778 lies close to Waterloo Crescent in the SE part of EPC.

Grid References have been assigned to all gravesites - vide Numerical Index.
Grid references vide pp 1-11.

* Sites marked by brickwork: identity unknown.

EPC NUMERICAL INDEX OF GRAVESITES 1983-84

SYSTEM: Lines of graves aligned ca N to S across cemetery. Line 1 in NW corner (Plain/Wittenoom), line 62 along mid eastern side (Waterloo/Bronte).

Layout of graves is too irregular to assign rows west to east.

GRID: Lettered E-W
Numbered N-S

MONUMENTS: Some now illegible. Data augmented from 1952 Anglican List (Ted Doncaster - Archivist) and from 1960 List (Miss Henderson et al - Battye PR 2640).

Some headstones are partly buried and parts of others are missing. Some inscriptions may thus be incomplete: additional names lost.

Empty sites - headstones etc. removed (? to Karrakatta etc.).

Underneath this tomb are interred the mortal remains of Lt. Col. Andrew CLARKE, late Commandant of the 46th Regt., Knight of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Governor, C.I.C. and Vice Admiral of Western Australia & its dependencies. Devoted from an early period of his life to the service of his country, he succeeded under the varied trials of climate, of difficulty and of danger in securing to himself singleness of purpose, by persevering, firmness, by fidelity and wise discretion, the marked approbation of his sovereign and the respect and esteem of all who knew him. In the discharge of his military and civil duties and whilst his urbanity of demeanour and placidity of disposition won for him the regard of the stranger and endeared him in no common degree to his family and friends. It was the distinguished excellence of his life that faith unfeigned and a piety unaffected gave consistency to all his activities and at once embellished and completed his character as a Christian soldier. He departed this life after a public service of forty years on the 11th day of February 1847 in the 54th year of his age.

In memory of Frederick Kennedy PANTER; James Richard HARDING and William Henry GOLDWYER, who together departed this life on the northwest coast of Australia in the vicinity of Roebuck Bay, November 13th, 1864. They were murdered, apparently whilst asleep in the night by aboriginal natives with whom, as there is every reason to suppose, they believed they were on friendly terms. The Colonial Government, H.S. HAMPTON being the Governor, took upon itself the task of recovering their remains, interring them in this grave and erecting this monument.

Maitland BROWN was the leader of the little band of brave men who, risking their own lives, found and brought back for Christian burial the bodies of their deceased friends. The abovenamed Maitland BROWN after a long and useful career as a member of the Legislative Council, and latterly for many years as Government Resident at Geraldton, died on 9 May, 1905; aged 61 years and was buried at Karrakatta Cemetery. At the instance of some of his old friends and contemporaries, and with the consent of the Government and of his family, his remains were removed from Karrakatta on 1st February, 1911 to rest in this vault beside the bodies of those he had so bravely recovered 46 years ago.

EAST PERTH CEMETERY: ALPHABETICAL INDEX OF GRAVESITES

This index has been compiled from the following sources:

1. Data on existing monuments in the E.P.C. recorded during 1983-1986 by Ranger David Davies and Dr J.A. Richardson.
2. Records of Anglican gravesites compiled by the Rev. (now Archdeacon) Ted Doncaster, dated 7 June 1952.
3. Surveys, all denominations, by Miss Henderson of the R.W.A.H.S., made during the late 1950's.

Note: Items 2 & 3 are contained in Battye Library File PR2640.

Addenda Nos. 1, 2 and 3 contain names of persons reportedly or definitely buried in EPC but not recorded on surviving monuments: many graves have disappeared since the cemetery was closed in 1899.

These data were provided by:

- . persons interested in the cemetery who corresponded with me after newspaper reports of vandalism (Appendix X).
- . abstracts from previous surveys.

Recording

Married women are listed under their married name, and, where data are available, under their maiden name also. Bio-data have been recorded as fully as possible. However some monuments are badly eroded and thus very difficult to impossible to read.

Sites are recorded by Line and Number (vide Map No. 2).
