

DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION AND LAND MANAGEMENT

POLICY DIRECTORATE

ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTION NO. 3

File ref: 231/85

DBJ:sp

HONORARY ROYAL COMMISSION

The Honorary Royal Commission was established to enquire into and report upon the operation and effectiveness of the Conservation and Land Management Act.

Members of the Commission are :-

Hon A. A. Lewis, MLC, Chairman

Hon V. J. Ferry, MLC

Hon F. E. McKenzie, MLC

To assist the Royal Commission in its functions the following is brought to your attention.

1. If approached by members of the Royal Commission to supply information or to discuss aspects of the Department's operations, staff are encouraged to be as co-operative and helpful as possible.
2. Each officer may freely discuss matters on which he/she is well informed.
3. When an officer is unsure of a particular matter or policy, he/she should refer to a senior officer.
4. NOTE that unless a specific instruction has been received, policies remain as they were in the respective organisations before amalgamation.
