

No. 3169.

An Act to amend the Dog Act 1915.

[21st December, 1921.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of Victoria in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows (that is to say) :—

1. This Act may be cited as the Dog Act 1921 and shall be read and construed as one with the Dog Act 1915 (hereinafter called the Principal Act) which Act and this Act may be cited together as the Dog Acts.

Short title
construction
and citation.
No. 2641.

2. (1) Notwithstanding anything in section four of the Principal Act the council of any municipality may appoint a day other than the first day of March for the registration (subject to the Principal Act) in each and every year of dogs within the municipal district.

Appointment
by council of date for registration of dogs.
Ib. s. 4.

(2) Notice of the appointment of any day as aforesaid shall be published in some newspaper generally circulating in such municipal district.

Publication of notice.

(3) When any day has been so appointed the Principal Act and the Schedules thereto shall, with respect to such municipal district, be read and construed with such alterations modifications and substitutions of the days and months and periods specified therein as are necessitated by or consequent upon such appointment.

Consequential
alterations &c.
in construction
of No. 2641 ss. 4, 5, 7, 12, Second
Schedule,
Third Schedule.

(4) In all cases where a day has been appointed under this Act for the registration of dogs within any municipal district the last preceding annual registration of dogs within such district shall be deemed (notwithstanding the expiration of the year in respect of which such registration was made) to be effective during the period between the termination of such year and the day so appointed.

Last preceding annual registration to be effective
until date
appointed for new registration.