BARNA MIA

Discover some of Western Australia's threatened mammals in a unique wildlife tourism experience.

Barna Mia is an animal sanctuary located in the heart of Dryandra Woodland, located just two hours from Perth. Barna Mia has been constructed to provide visitors with an opportunity to view, at close range, a number of threatened native marsupials.

Discover the bilby, burrowing bettong, rufous hare-wallaby, western barred bandicoot and banded hare-wallaby during an informative, guided nocturnal walk.

Learn about other conservation measures being undertaken to preserve our native animals and reintroduce them to their former habitats.
