Thank
you

Thank you to all our loyal subscribers, readers and contributors for helping us reach this amazing milestone!

In June 2025, LANDSCOPE will celebrate its 40th anniversary

LANDSCOPE magazine will evolve into a new and engaging format as a free online publication.

It's our way of bringing these amazing stories to a wider audience across the globe

Questions and answers

When will the last edition of LANDSCOPE be printed?

Winter 2025 will be the last printed edition of LANDSCOPE magazine. From Spring 2025 onwards, the same rich content will be available for you to read and enjoy for free from your digital devices.

What will remain the same:

- Each edition will feature the same number of well-written, well-researched articles on the same variety of topics.
- LANDSCOPE will still be issued quarterly.
- Articles will still undergo the same level of rigorous scientific checks and approvals.
- Articles will still be complemented by audio visual elements including videos and podcast episodes.

What will change:

- Instead of receiving a printed copy in the mail, subscribers will receive an email. The email will contain links to articles contained within the current edition of LANDSCOPE.

- The content will be available anytime. Previous editions and articles will be archived on the DBCA website and can be readily accessed.

What about subscriptions?

- Customers can purchase partial subscriptions for the remaining printed editions until February 2025.
- Goldstar subscription customers can purchase partial subscriptions for the remaining printed editions combined with their annual All Park Pass renewal until February 2025.
- LANDSCOPE magazine and calendar packages will be available to purchase in partial subscriptions for the remaining printed editions until February 2025.
