National Park Passes

Your ticket to nature

There is no better way to discover the beauty and diversity of Western Australia than to explore the state's national parks. If you are planning to visit a national park, you will need a national park pass. Not only will a park pass save you time and money, but you will be making a valuable contribution to the management of these special areas.

Which pass do I need?

Visitor fees apply at major national parks in Western Australia. The following passes are required where visitor fees apply.

DAY PASS Provides entry to one or more national parks for a day visit

 $8 per vehicle (up to 8 properly seated people)

or

  $3 per bus passenger — motor cycle

HOLIDAY PASS* Entitles unlimited entry to any national park for up to four weeks. Ideal for people on holiday.

 $20 per vehicle (up to 8 properly seated people)

ANNUAL LOCAL PARK PASS Provides unlimited entry to one national park (or group of local parks) for 12 months.

 $15 per vehicle (up to 8 properly seated people)

ALL PARKS ANNUAL PASS* Allows unlimited entry to any national park in Western Australia for 12 months.

 $45 per vehicle (up to 8 properly seated people)

GOLD STAR PASS* Combines an All Parks Annual Pass with an annual subscription to LANDSCOPE, CALM's conservation, forests and wildlife magazine.

 $64 per vehicle (up to 8 properly seated people)

Park passes are not valid for the Valley of the Giants Tree Top Walk, Penguin Island or special events (e.g. Avon Descent). Separate fees apply. Separate fees apply for camping.

*Only these passes are valid for Monkey Mia Reserve

Concessions

Seniors' card and aged pension card holders are entitled to a $3 day pass. Disabled, education and study groups may not be required to pay fees. Requests for free entry can be made in writing to the Park Pass Coordinator, Department of CALM, Locked Bag 104, Bentley Delivery Centre WA 6983.

By investing in a national park pass you are investing in the future of Western Australia's natural environment
