PENGUIN ISLAND

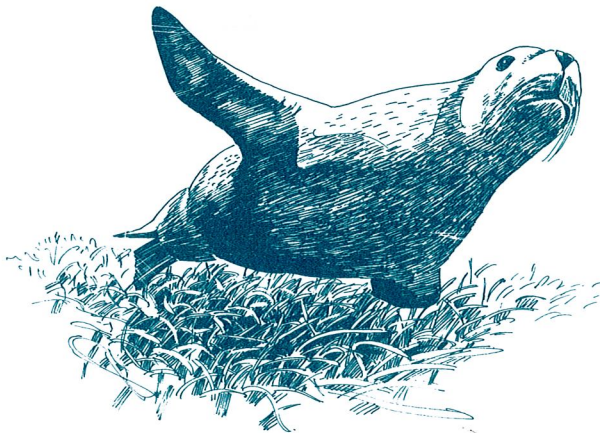

Penguin Island is home to about 1,200 little penguins, forming the largest breeding colony on the Western Australian coastline. The Penguin Experience - Island Discovery Centre is a viewing enclosure and information centre, home to rescued and rehabilitated penguins. Presentations and information panels allow visitors to learn about these unique birds in an environment similar to their natural habitat.

Commentary and feeding time 10.30 am, 12.30 pm, 2.30 pm.

SEAL ISLAND

Nearby Seal Island is a wildlife habitat, home to a colony of male Australian sea lions, one of the world's rarest species. Landing on Seal Island is strictly prohibited. The cruises provide an opportunity to view the island's wildlife and snorkel in adjacent waters.

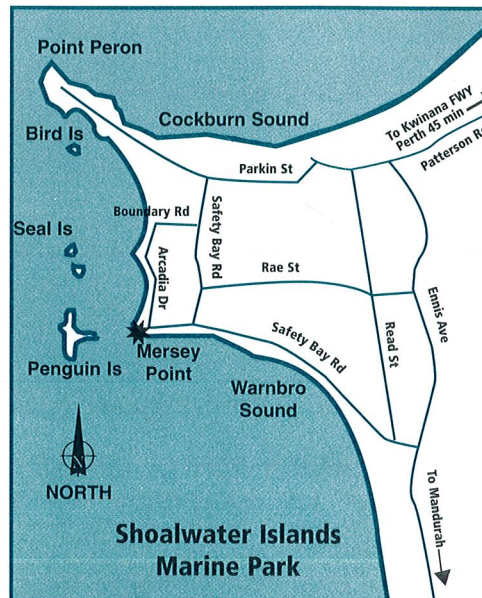

On the mainland, Penguin and Seal Island Cruises also caters for:
