

LIBRARY

Department of Biodiversity,
Conservation and Attractions

This PDF has been created for digital preservation. It may be used for research but is not suitable for other purposes. It may be superseded by a more current version or just be out-of-date and have no relevance to current situations.

SCHOOL CAMPS IN THE FOREST – 2003

40 minutes from Perth!

The Hills Forest Discovery Centre in Mundaring offers excellent bush camping facilities set in magnificent jarrah forest surroundings. A range of curriculum-based Department of Conservation and Land Management programs are available for students of all learning levels.

The Hills Forest Discovery Centre campground

- 12 Shady camp sites
- Camp kitchen, BBQ's, showers, universal access
- Forest amphitheatre
- Meeting/Activity Room
- Walk Trails including Bibbulmun Track

Patens Brook – Bush camping

- Accessed via a three kilometre walk into the jarrah forest
- 15 pads, water tank, toilets, fire-rings

Bookings

Phone: 9295 2244

E-mail: hillsforest@calm.wa.gov.au

Alternative accommodation can be found at the Mundaring Youth Hostel

- One kilometre from the Discovery Centre
- 36 beds, capacity for 50
- On site catering

Bookings

Phone: 9295 1809

EcoEducation programs and activities

Attention all Primary Teachers, Science and, Society and Environment Teachers

Students explore biodiversity conservation and the value of environmental responsibility

Resource packages for pre-camp activities supporting all Learning Areas

Full day or half-day activities designed for Middle Childhood and Early Adolescence:

- the jarrah forest ecosystem, biology, geography,
- threatened species,
- Aboriginal culture,
- water catchment protection.

Bookings

Phone: 9295 6149 or 9295 6300

Fax: 9295 3247 or

E-mail: jillf@calm.wa.gov.au

DEPARTMENT OF Conservation
AND LAND MANAGEMENT
Conserving the nature of WA

SCHOOL CAMPS 2003

Close to Perth and Bunbury!

Situated in the jarrah forest of Wellington National Park between Bunbury and Collie, this site combines a safe venue with curriculum-based programs and activities for all learning levels.

Wellington Mill Cottages

- Eight self-contained cottages, sleeps 64
- On site catering service
- Hall
- Abundance of native bird and animal life
- Volleyball area
- Walk trails

Bookings for cottages:

Phone (08) 9728 3043

E-mail: cottageparks@designrite.com.au

More activities off site:

abseiling, canoeing, agricultural and mining industry visits.

Wellington Discovery Forest Centre

Attention all Primary Teachers and Society and Environment, Science, Geography, Biology Teachers

Fully equipped interpretive centre

A range of activities led by Department of Conservation and Land Management Education Officers. Resources for use in school.

- Discover the jarrah forest ecosystem and its incredible invertebrates
- Experience hands-on monitoring of native animals and close encounters with threatened species
- Challenge your students – blindfolded on a rope walk; take part in guided night walks
- Meet a local historian - step into the life of a sleeper cutter.

Bookings for programs:

Ph: 9734 1988, Fax: 9734 4539

E-mail: wdf@cal.wa.gov.au

