Park entrance fees

There's no better way to discover the beauty and diversity of Western Australia than to explore its world-class parks system. Visitor fees apply at many of these parks, so you may wish to purchase one of the passes described below. These passes save you time and money and by buying one you will be making a valuable contribution to the management of these special areas.

Which pass do I need?

One of the following passes is required to enter parks in WA where entry fees apply. All prices include GST.

The Day Pass provides entry to a park for a day visit. (More than one park may be visited on the same day using the pass purchased that day.) The pass can be purchased at a park entry point.

🚗 $10 per vehicle (up to eight legally seated people).

🏍️ $5 per motor cycle and concession cardholders (see 'Concessions').

🚌 $4 per passenger on buses, $1.50 per concession cardholder (see 'Concessions') not on a commercial tour.

Free entry applies if you walk or cycle into a park.

- The Holiday Pass provides unlimited entry to all parks for up to four weeks.
🚗 $35 per vehicle (up to eight legally seated people).
- The Annual Local Park Pass provides unlimited entry to one park (or a group of local parks) for 12 months.
🚗 $20 per vehicle (up to eight legally seated people).
- The Annual All Parks Pass provides unlimited entry to all WA parks for 12 months.
🚗 $75 per vehicle (up to eight legally seated people).
🚗 $50 per vehicle for concession cardholders (see 'Concessions').
- The Gold Star Pass combines an Annual All Parks Pass with an annual subscription to DEC's LANDSCOPE magazine.
🚗 $100 per vehicle (up to eight legally seated people).

Park passes are not valid for the Tree Top Walk, Penguin Island, Monkey Mia Reserve, Geikie Gorge National Park boat trip or special events such as the Avon Descent. Separate fees apply.

Park passes are for entrance fees only. Separate fees apply for camping.

Which parks have entry fees?

North West: King Leopold Range Conservation Park, Karijini, Millstream-Chichester, Mirima, Purnululu (Bungle Bungle), Tunnel Creek and Winjana Gorge national parks.

Coral Coast: Cape Range, Francois Peron, Kalbarri and Numbung (Pinnacles) national parks.

Around Perth: Avon Valley, John Forrest, Serpentine, Walyunga and Yanchep national parks.

Golden Outback: Cape Arid, Cape Le Grand and Stokes national parks.

South West: Beedelup, D'Entrecasteaux, Fitzgerald River, Gloucester, Porongurup, Shannon, Stirling Range and Warren national parks.

Entry fees do not apply at other national or conservation parks in WA.

Concessions

Holders of the following Australian issued cards are entitled to the specified concession passes, camping or attraction fees as listed in this brochure.

- Seniors' Card
- Disability Support
- Carer Payment
- Department of Veterans' Affairs (DVA)
- Age Pension
- Disability Support (Blind)
- Carer Allowance
- Companion Card

The accompanying companion/carer of a Companion Card holder is entitled to free entry when entering an attraction or venue where 'per person' fees apply. This also applies to camping fees.

Community groups travelling on buses may be entitled to a reduction in fees so check with the local DEC office before you visit.

Holders of Recreation Fishing licences may enter a park at no charge if they are entering for the purpose of their licence.

Organised outings for disabled groups, aged and infirm groups or education and study groups accompanied by their carers may be eligible for an entry fee waiver. Request for consideration of fee waivers can be made to the Parks Pass Coordinator, Locked Bag 104, Bentley Delivery Centre, WA 6983.

Where are passes available?

Day passes are available at park entry points.

WA is a big State and it is not possible to staff all park entry points. Please follow the instructions to pay your fees at parks that are not staffed.

All other passes are available at most DEC offices, selected tourist outlets and retail stores, and from the NatureBase website at www.naturebase.net, through the 'shop' link. To purchase over the phone or for details of your nearest park pass outlet, phone (08) 9334 0333.
