Yanchep National Park

Teeming with wildlife, wetlands, history and Aboriginal culture, Yanchep National Park is one of the most popular National Parks in WA.

You can see wildlife including kangaroos and koalas, enjoy a dance lesson with a difference with Aboriginal Didgeridoo and Dance tours or venture underground into the magical Crystal Cave, tours run daily.

For more information, call (+618) 9561 1004, email yanchep@calm.wa.gov.au or go to www.naturebase.net/yanchep.html

Mundaring National Park*

Experience the national park forests of Perth's hills on a visit to the beautiful Hills Forest Discovery Centre. Hold native animals, experience indigenous culture and explore the natural environment. Stay a little longer for billy tea and a bush dance! Don't forget to stop on the way home for stunning views of Perth.

Penguin Island

A short ferry ride is all it takes to discover the wonders of Penguin Island, home of the little penguins, pelicans and the Penguin Experience Discovery Centre. Commentated Penguin feeding sessions occur daily during open season (mid September to early June). Tours of Shoalwater Islands Marine Park run daily as well.

While on the island take advantage of the beautiful swimming and snorkelling beaches as well as breathtaking marine and coastal scenery.
