Professional Development 2003 Wellington Discovery Forest

An invitation to join EcoEducation programs address the core value of Environmental Responsibility of the Curriculum Framework

Dear Teacher

We are planning another year of great opportunities for teachers and students in 2003. Wellington Discovery Forest PD days are a good way for teachers to familiarise themselves with a range of educational resources and opportunities. They will help you and your students make the most of your visit to the forest.

The PD day provides:

- Resources for you to use at school and how they link with the Curriculum Framework
- Free Action Pack about threatened species
- Free resource package about the jarrah forest
- An overview and experience of excursion activities
- A review of the Department's educational packages and resources
- A chance to find out about threatened species and our Western Shield Schools Program
- Lunch

For: Teachers of primary and lower secondary Society & Environment and Science students in the Bunbury, Collie and Harvey area, and for teachers leading school groups on camp in Wellington Forest.

When: Friday 14 March, Friday 30 May, Monday 27 October

Time: 9am to 3.30pm

Where: Wellington Discovery Forest

Cost: $38.50 (inc. GST)

NB 10% GST can be claimed for all curriculum-based activities

Whole school staff PD

The Centre provides a pleasant environment away from school. The day will enrich your teaching programs.

Cost: $33.00 (inc. GST)

NB 10% GST can be claimed for all curriculum-based activities
