DISCOVERY BOOKS $6.50 each

Discovery Books capture the beauty of Western Australia's tourist destinations, plants and animals in full-colour pocket sized guides.

The photographs and maps portray the beauty and rarity of the State's wonders and the easy to understand descriptions provide readers with the information and tools to identify and record species sightings.

The range of Discovery Books for the Mid and North-West include:

Discovering Shark Bay Marine Park and Monkey Mia

Discovering Nambung National Park (Pinnacles)

Under a Regent Moon provides a historical account of the Marigui Homestead on the remote Prince Regent River. Written by Kimberley researchers Tim Willing and Kevin Kenneally, the book is based on articles and diary entries written between 1891 and 1892 by pioneer pastoralist Aeneas Gunn.

The endeavours of Gunn and Bradshaw have been beautifully captured in this 76-page book which includes colour and black and white photographs, maps and diary excerpts.
