Aboriginal Culture Excursions

CALM's 1998 ACE Program

Excursions for secondary students studying traditional Aboriginal societies.
Professional Development for Aboriginal Studies teachers.

This program was developed by CALM in 1996, was booked out in 1997 and is offered again in 1998. It is endorsed and partly funded by the Education Department. Sponsorship provides up to $250 for transport costs. The PD days and excursions provide an opportunity for teachers and students to learn from experienced Aboriginal leaders about traditional Aboriginal culture in the natural environment.

What teachers said about the program:

I liked the way plants, animals, music, food, the people, their stories and culture were interwoven; it was excellent. Great hands-on activities.—Cathy

A wonderful opportunity to be with Aboriginal people.—David
