FOREST HERITAGE FESTIVAL

Saturday 4th October until 10th October
Second week of the school holidays
Set amongst the Dwellingup jarrah forest

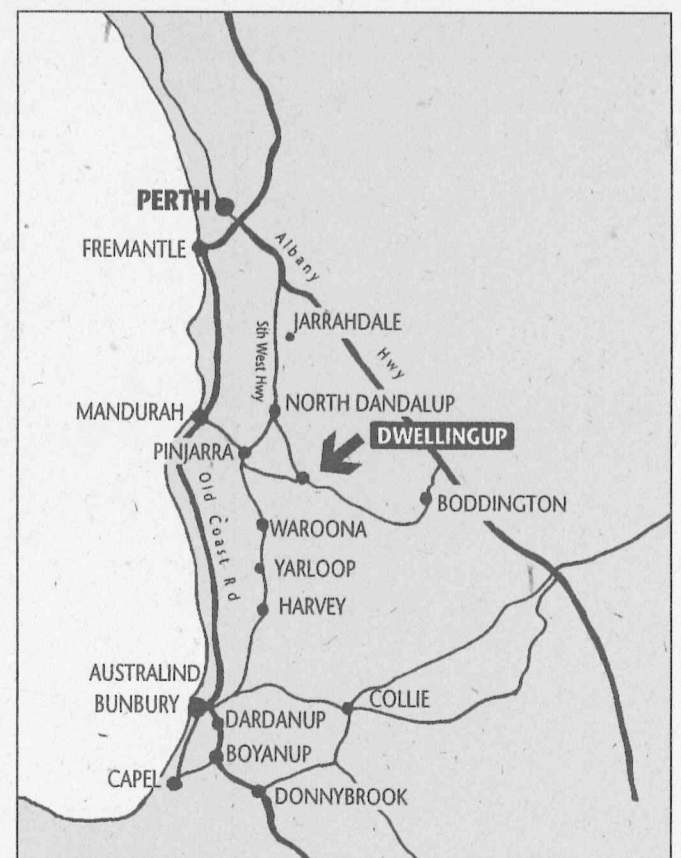

A week-long Spring celebration

- Starting with a splash on the first weekend at the Forest Heritage Centre with hands-on demonstrations in papermaking, floral art, traditional mia mia making, spinning, carving, billy tea and damper, forest feasting, storytelling and bush poets, music, forest heritage market stalls, bushwalks, and much more.
- Feature activities for the week involve finewood exhibitions, rafting and canoeing specials, bike rides, storytelling, bushwalks and wildflowers, orchid walks, papermaking, mill tours, and steam train adventures.
- The big bash bush dance and hearty timber town repast at the Dwellingup Community Hotel, mark the end of the festival week on Friday night, 10th Oct.
- Admissions at festival rates.

Sponsored by Healthways, Lotteries Commission, Weston Milling, Goodman Fielder Mills and Daintree Tea Company.
