LANDSCOPE

W.A.'s CONSERVATION, FORESTS AND WILDLIFE MAGAZINE

Dear LANDSCOPE Reader,

At LANDSCOPE magazine, in everything we do, our readers come first. You receive a magazine with a visible dedication to excellence in environmental and nature journalism, design, photography, colour reproduction and printing. You receive fresh perspectives on Western Australia, its plants, animals and special places.

To continue to deliver the highest standards of magazine content and production, the cover price and subscription to LANDSCOPE will increase as of 1 January 1997. The new cover price will be $6.95, one year's subscription will be $24, and the additional postage charge to cover overseas subscriptions will rise to $20.

These are the first price increases for LANDSCOPE since March 1990!

To show our appreciation for your continued support to LANDSCOPE, we offer you the opportunity to renew your subscription now at the current price, before the necessary increase in January.

This offer is open to all current subscribers. Even if you have just renewed or have issues still to come you may renew now, adding 4 more issues to your credit, and your subscription will be valid until 1998. Note: Renewals for one year only are available.

To take advantage of this offer, complete the subscription form in the magazine and return it with the mailing cover and payment to our Reply Paid address by 27 December 1996. We hope you take up this chance to continue to subscribe to LANDSCOPE at the best possible value.

Thank you again for your continued support and readership of LANDSCOPE magazine.

Yours sincerely

Ron Kawalilak
MANAGING EDITOR, LANDSCOPE
