

Nannup hosts a golf day

Twenty-six years after the inaugural Foresters' Golf Day, it's on again and this time it's open to all CALM employees.

The event, which will be held on Saturday 21 September at the Pine Ridge Golf Club at Nannup, is aimed at getting people together. It is a chance to make new friends and catch up with old friends, and it doesn't matter if you've never played golf or even held a club.

The day begins with the Bush Rangers' Belt, a men's and women's 9-hole Stableford competition (played for points) for non-golfers and golfers with no recognised handicap. This is an '(almost) anything goes' competition with multiple prizes around the course, including one for the hardest worker! Refreshments will also be available around the course. Tee-off is at 8.00 am.

A light lunch will be served at around 10.30 am.

The afternoon session consists of two team competitions for people with a recognised club handicap - an 18-hole Stableford for men and a 9-hole Stableford for women - and tees-off at 12 noon. Teams must have between three and five members and all team members will be eligible for individual trophies. Teams should be nominated prior to the event and districts may nominate more than one team.

There will be a new trophy this year. The Amalgamated Trophy is open to teams consisting of at least one waged employee, one forest officer and one national park ranger.

Other highlights of the weekend will include a social evening and barbecue at the Nannup District Amenities Room on Friday 20 September, TV coverage of the AFL preliminary final on the Saturday afternoon in the Golf Club Bar, and a barbecue with the presentation of trophies on the Saturday evening. Accommodation is plentiful with a hotel and motel in town, bed and breakfast, chalet hire, and private accommodation for those prepared to 'rough it'.

The Golf Day has been losing support over the last few years so the organisers have made a special effort to give this year's event a wider appeal. It looks as though they've succeeded, so if you'd like more details check your social notice board.
