

Is this a case of some CALM staff getting carried away with the need to raise revenue? Has mining commenced, without approval, in one of our national parks? No - the photo shows park ranger Rick France sinking a shaft for new toilets at Peak Charles National Park, and the "nugget" he's holding was assayed as worthless.

(A report in the Central Districts Gazette last December referred to "CALM and other mining companies".)

Peak Charles National Park

OCT 1990

Digging a new Pit toilet

OR

Digging for Gold?

DNF 11+01 NNNNN-04 546

mining

- Pic by
Roger Underwood