'Iwas on a ronday morning
In liovember ' 84
Just as the day was dawning
Brenda opened up the door
Keath drew apart the curtains
To see ill was on the rocks ${ }^{\text {a }}$
The solitude of Twertup
Was in for several shocks.
Quite early at the barbeque
Amelia made a pot of tea
like us it sat for hours to brew-
What will the next shot be?
Then there was Ken among his blossoms
Finding one he thought rare
Like the baby pigmy 'possums We were finding here and there.

Few birds escaped the eyes of Ray irs Terle paintedtke scene Recording flowers on film, was Kaye And Veronica told of her dream.

Helen was typing news up to date
Heather's cakes made the boys all aglow
Heatir gave a hand, as he worked on the slate For the set was an A.B.C. SHOV.

Now laul redly delved right into your mind Which,with care was directed by Tim With cameras we hope Rob and Ted were kind As John angled his microphone in.

What a picnis it was , from dawn into night As the STARS went orbiting soundlrinking tea by the hour was really a sight Being filmed from the roof and the ground.

It was fun all the way, and we laughed such a lot
as the crew and our mob shared the day
Their patience unending, we hope that they got lore than we intended to say.
A toast to the "Ileartlands" was made in red wine An aword $\lim$ and raul won't forget.
our meals were cuperb, when we found time to dine
"was a privilege to be on the URT.
