December 2013

Welcome to the Christmas issue of the Department of Parks and Wildlife's WA Naturally publications newsletter.

We have selected titles that would make great Christmas gifts for family and friends including a 2013 Whitley Award winning children's book Deepsea Whale Rescue and the stunning 2014 Western Australia Calendar – celebrating 21 years in production and of course our award-winning Landscape magazine. We hope you enjoy our selection and find something to help with your Christmas shopping ... you may even find an early Christmas present for yourself!

All purchases support the department's work in caring for our State's parks and wildlife so visitors can experience and enjoy our extraordinary natural environment.

Recreation guides

Rediscover Perth outdoors

Produced in late 2012, this guide helps visitors enjoy the beautiful, natural recreation areas in and around Perth, Western Australia. Each of the park and recreation areas described in the guide are a short walk, drive or boat ride from the city centre. The guide covers 37 parks including the most popular visitor destinations in WA: Kings Park and Botanic Gardens, Araluen Botanic Park and Yanchep National Park and offshore to Rottnest Island.

RRP $24.95 (full colour, 152 pages) - Buy online

Exploring Western Australia's natural wonders

This is a must-have book if you're planning to explore WA or would love to know more about its 64 national, marine and regional parks.

Exploring Western Australia's natural wonders will take you on a journey of discovery into the State's top parks and reserves. This book covers it all – the South-West, Golden Outback, Coral Coast, North-West and Perth and includes maps, park facts, natural attractions, camping information, history and how to explore each area.

Even if you're not planning a trip this book makes a great addition to any coffee table.

RRP $39.95 (full colour and a massive 327 pages!) - Buy online

Children's titles – all award-recognised!

Deepsea Whale Rescue

Winner of a Whitley Award for Best Overall Children's Book for 2013.

This story brings to life the true story of a mother whale's courageous defence of her calf. But once mother and calf are safe, divers watching can see she has another problem – life-threatening entanglement in ropes.

Dedicated by the author to Doug Coughran AM and to all those in the whale rescue teams who face the daunting and dangerous task of rescuing entangled whales in the deep waters around Australia.

RRP $26.95 (award-winning author and illustrator) - Buy online

Tuart Dwellers

Short-listed for the Children's Book Council of Australia award and winner of the Wilderness Society of Australia's Environmental Children's Book award, Tuart Dwellers is a beautifully illustrated story celebrating the amazing life in a tuart forest. As you read you will meet the 'mad hatterpillar', and find out what surprise a 'moon crater' might hide.

Tuart Dwellers will make a stunning addition to any children's bookshelf.

RRP $26.95 - Buy online

Jeemuluk: The young noisy scrub-bird

Jeemuluk is a lovely children's story about a shy yet curious little bird with a big song who is looking for a home. His journey takes a surprising detour when a pair of big boots appears.

A painting of the noisy scrub-bird by the illustrator of this book, Carol Ann O'Connor, was presented to HRH Prince Philip, on behalf of the people of WA, in recognition of his efforts toward protecting the noisy scrub-bird's habitat.

Available in hard or soft cover

RRP $14.95 (hard cover) - Buy online

RRP $9.95 (soft cover) - Buy online
