

What's on in parks this week

View this email in your browser

Special Edition | Spring 2018

Six things to do in parks during the Spring school holidays

Photo: Downy Ducks

Kids are curious beings and we know the benefits of them spending time outdoors - their motor, social, sensory development, including their general health and wellbeing are enhanced when they explore the natural environment.

Listen in to ABC Radio Perth to hear all about The Gap

Torndirrup National Park (Photo: Parks and Wildlife Service)

Last week we heard from long-time campground host Bill Stevens discussing all things Mount Augustus National Park.

Today, Senior Landscape Architect from Parks and Wildlife Service, Jeremy Flynn will be discussing Torndirrup National Park.

They will also be discussing the growing number of national parks in Western Australia's South West that are providing thrills for visitors with a penchant for heights, such as the natural bridge and the Gap at Torndirrup.

Tune in to ABC radio at 3.30pm to hear what it was like to design a platform to view the Southern Ocean crashing beneath your feet.

Visit the website to find out more on this week's #ourwapark Park of the Week.

What's happening in parks this weekend

Hidden Treasures Bloom Festival

We've found some events and activities happening across Parks to help get your exploration of our national parks started this weekend.

Find out what's happening.

The WA Parks Foundation is a registered charity with the Australian Charities and Not-for-profit Commission. Any donations of $2.00 or more are eligible for a tax deduction under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.

Copyright © 2018 WA Parks Foundation, All rights reserved.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

MailChimp