February 2014

Hi <<First Name>>

Spend a toe-tappin' afternoon of retro themes on Saturday 8 March when Yanchep National Park, in partnership with the City of Wanneroo, presents the newest event to the Yanchep calendar – Retro Rewind.

What: Retro Rewind

When: Saturday 8 March 1pm to 5pm

Where: Yanchep National Park

With a wealth of history and culture, Yanchep National Park is the perfect place to celebrate our retro past.

Head back to the 60s and early 70s soul scene with Stratosfunk, who will perform hits from the Motown era on the lake side of Yanchep Inn. The band's dynamic rhythm section combines a blistering horn section and powerhouse vocalists that will have you up dancing from the first song.

The musical entertainment will also feature Cottontail Trio and the Supper Club, a nine-piece band bringing the music of the Golden Era back to life. There will be plenty of retro-themed activities for the whole family including hot rods, swing dance demonstrations, arcade games and more.

The park's usual tourism activities such as cave tours and Aboriginal Experience sessions are open for bookings as well.

And while you're celebrating our glorious past, see for yourself some of the stunning remnants of history in the park – the historic Yanchep Inn, McNess House Visitor Centre and Gloucester Lodge.

Entry to the park is free during Retro Rewind in celebration of Parks Week.
