Special issue - November 2014

Hi DPaW

The wildflowers aren't the only things putting on a stunning display of colour at Yanchep National Park this spring.

The Hot Rods in the Park event, hosted by Parks and Wildlife, will see a rainbow of street machines roll into the park on Sunday 16 November.

Date: Sunday 16 November

Time: from 11am

Location: near the historic Yanchep Inn

Contact: 9303 7765 for more information.

Marketing officer Jennifer Green said people will see an impressive gathering of lil' deuce coupes, highboy roadsters, fat fendered Fords and old classics such as Chevys and Corvettes.

"Hot rod enthusiasts can get up close to the cars to admire the meticulous attention to detail by their owners in building these fantastic vehicles," she said.

"There will be something for everyone on the day, with a fine display of vintage cars from the Goodfellas Hot Rod Club, several stalls selling their wares, a wood-turning demonstration, bouncy castle, roving magician and wildlife displays.

"We usually see around 4000 people come to the hot rods event, so to avoid disappointment get in early."

Normal park entry fees apply.
