SCIENTIFIC FORESTRY PROVIDES WEALTH FOR EVER

Mature karri tree and seedling. With adequate protection and planning this six-months-old seedling will one day provide timber, plywood, chemical products and pulp for industries of the future—industries based on permanent and replaceable resources.

WITH PERMANENT PROTECTION, MANAGED NATIVE FORESTS PROVIDE:

- Permanent wealth from forest regeneration.
- Permanent employment from production of sawn timber, chipboard, plywood, pulp products, poles, piles, honey and other forest products. (Not to mention employment in industries using these products.)
